History of His Word

His Word is a Christian band out of Seminole, FL. They first came on the scene in 1998 as the Grace to Youth (GTY) Praise Band. They started out leading music for youth group and later led worship at St. Anne of Grace Episcopal Church during Sunday services. Several members of the Praise Band wanted to take their gift of music out into the community, and His Word was born. In the summer of 2001 they began opening for GTY's musical drama Soul Survivor. In early 2002, they decided to become an independent ministry. They are now supported by their hard work and that of the people around them. They have become more of a rock band, but their roots are still evident. Their influences include worship driven artists Michael W. Smith, Jeff Deyo, and Chris Tomlin. His Word's goal is to make every event they play a worship experience, not just a concert.
